

Helpful Children

It is Sunday. The weather is warm and sunny. Paul and May go to ABC Park. They feel excited.

Paul and May see an old man in the park. The old man looks hungry and tired. May says, "Let's give him some cakes, bananas and water." Then, they give him some cakes, bananas and water. The old man feels happy. The old man says, 'Thank you!'

Later, Paul and May see a girl. The girl is on the bench. The girl looks thirsty. Paul says, 'Let's give her some drink.' Then they give the girl some juice and water. She has a big smile on her face.

Paul and May feel happy after helping people. Their friends like them because Paul and May are helpful and kind.
