

Mum's Birthday Meal

Today is Saturday. It is Cherry's mum birthday. Cherry goes to Yummy Fast Food in Tai Po by bus. She says, 'Today is Mum's birthday, I want to buy some fast food for Mum.'

Cherry looks at the menu in the shop. She orders food at the cashier. She says, 'May I have three slices of pizza, two cans of cola and a box of chicken wings, please?' 'Which chicken wings do you want, large or small?' asks the cashier. 'Large, please. Mum likes eating chicken wings. How much is it altogether?' 'It's eighty-one dollars,' says the cashier.

Later, Cherry is surprised because she does not have enough money. She is disappointed. The people at the back wait for a long time. They feel angry.

In the end, Cherry just buys a box of chicken wings. Then, she goes home and makes a strawberry cake, a cup of lemon tea, some sandwiches and some donuts. After that, Mum comes back home. She is happy because Cherry makes a lot of food for her. Later, they eat the food together. They have a happy day.
