

A Bad Experience in the Park

Last night after dinner, Oscar had a bad experience in the park. He played with his dog, Mike and gave it dog food. They played on the slide and on the swing. They kept running around the park. Oscar said, 'Good boy!' He was excited. Mike wagged his tail happily!

After that, Oscar suddenly met a robber. The robber had a sharp knife. He was wearing an eye patch. Oscar was frightened! The robber said, 'Hey! Give me some money!' Oscar said, 'But I don't have any money in my pocket.' The robber was getting a little bit angry.

In the end, Mike saw what was happening. It quickly ran to the robber and bit him as hard as it could. The robber felt scared. Then a police officer came. He caught the robber. After that, Mike saved the day! Oscar was glad that the police caught the robber. Mike and Oscar were relieved.
