

Grandpa's Treasure

Last week, Grandpa was sick. Suki visited Grandpa in the hospital. When Suki went to Grandpa's bed, he was weak and his face was white. Suki was worried. Suki sat next to Grandpa's bed. Then Grandpa gave a map to Suki and said softly, 'I hid a box of treasure under the tree long ago. When I am gone, go find it.' After Suki heard what Grandpa said, she burst into tears. Suki said, 'Ok. I will look for it.' Later, Grandpa passed away. Suki was determined to find the treasure.

After that, Suki followed the map and rented a boat. On the way, it rained. At first, Suki thought it was just a little rain. After a while, it rained heavily. There were even lightning and rainstorms. Suki almost got struck by lightning. Suki was scared, her legs were shaking. Although it was hard for Suki to look for the island, she never gave up.

After a few days, Suki finally arrived the island. She went to the red cross on the map. She dug and dug. All of a sudden, the owner of the island appeared and saw Suki digging in the sand. He said angrily, 'What are you doing here? What do you do to my field? You are ruining my island! You better run now!' Suki was worried that she would get kidnapped. The owner stared at her. Suki ran for her life. Soon she had a creative idea to shake the tree. When she was shaking the tree, a coconut fell on the owner's head and banged his head. He felt dizzy. She took the opportunity to get the treasure.

In the end, Suki opened the treasure box. There was a lot of gold, money and even a huge diamond. Suki quickly closed the treasure box. She hopped onto the boat and escaped. After that, Suki became the richest person in her city. She donated money to charity, following her grandpa's will.

