

A Strange Dream

Vincent had a very strange dream last night. In his dream, he dreamt to be Superman. When he woke up, he saw a superman suit and he was shocked and said, 'Who gives me the Superman suit?' No one answered. He felt shocked but happy.

Vincent was full of power. He wore the suit and looked in the mirror. He said to himself, 'I am good-looking and smart. I am strong and brave. I need to go out and help people in need. I am Superman now! Yay!'

Vincent jumped out of the window and flew in the sky. He felt great. Suddenly, Vincent saw a thief who was carrying a big bag. He ran out of the bank. Vincent flew to the ground and said, 'Stop! Don't run!' The policeman came and caught the thief.

In the end, his mum came to his bedroom and said loudly, 'Vincent, wake up!' He woke up from the dream. He said to Mum, 'I was Superman. I was good-looking.' Mum smiled and said to him, 'Go to school, it is just a dream!'
