

Saturday

At the Beach

Today is Saturday. The weather is sunny. I go to the beach with my mum and dad. We go there by bus. I feel happy.

First, we have a picnic. We have some apples and bananas. We have eggs and some pears too.

Then, I build sandcastles. Dad swims in the sea. Next, I dig in the sand and look at shells at the beach.

At about five o'clock, we go home. We feel tired but happy. It is a wonderful day.
